C. FDOM: Financial Development, Outreach, Marketing

(i) Introduction – Jamie Bryan, Co-chair

(ii) Revamping committee this year because obtaining large gifts is difficult due to various reasons.
1. Sandy Pierson and Jennifer Burnett will take lead on obtaining donations for the new building.
   (a) Donate to programmatic elements to improve the building.
   (b) Need to show departmental support for the building, not only donations.

2. Committee will focus on annualizing contributions to the endowment fund and the department.
   (a) Tailgate would become a fundraiser and require a minimal donation ($2)
   (b) Host an annual fundraising event and have details finalized by July 1. The event would contribute to the endowment fund.
      (i) Ideas: skeet, softball, golf
      (ii) Submit ideas to Jamie Bryan
   (c) Propose an annual board member contribution of $250
      (i) Voluntary this year, required going forward
      (ii) Amend bylaws to include the minimum contribution
      (iii) Discussion on the required contribution
         (1) We need to show year over year growth of the endowment fund
         (2) Seed money for the annual event
         (3) Reevaluate contribution after two years

3. Marketing the program
   (a) Need successes of the board and program to promote to potential donors, at events, and to new board members
   (b) Capture board members contributions including time, out of pocket expenses (hotel, food, mileage, etc.) to attend the board meetings
   (c) Track students after graduation and their accomplishments to promote the program
Bryan suggested creating a special committee to handle marketing and develop a workshop to present to the board.

Jennifer Burnett can coordinate university marketing staff to assist the board.
